Screen Signals

- ② Speed Bone: Shows how fast you're going.
- ③ Power Boulder: Cracks appear when you take a hit.
- ④ Nitro: Extra boost.
- ⑤ Dino Engine: Your bike is powered by a dinosaur running in a wheel. When your Power gets low (shown on Power Boulder), your Dino Engine starts to get exhausted and your bike will consequently lose speed.
- ⑥ Hits Display: When you hit an opponent their Power level will be displayed, showing how many more hits they will take before crashing out. If you manage to force another racer out of the game, you will be awarded an extra point which will be added to the League Table at the end of that race.

The BC Races

There are 4 BC Races: Easy, Medium, HARO and ROCKHard. Each Race is split into 8 heats, each heat with 4 tracks of differing difficulty - 32 tracks in total. The 8 heats will occur in the following order:

- Heat 1: ROCK CITY RACE
- Heat 2: NIGHT RALLY
- Heat 3: OESERT ORIVE
- Heat 4: JUNGLE RUMBLE
- Heat 5: SWAMP STOMP
- Heat 6: BLIZZARO BLITZ
- Heat 7: CAVE RAVE
- Heat 8: VOLCANO OASH

At the finish of each BC Race, a trophy will be awarded to the winner. To win a trophy, you must race through all 8 heats of a particular BC Race (Easy, Medium, Hard or Rockhard). Your position at the end of each heat will win you points which are applied to the League Table. You will only win the trophy for a particular BC Race if you appear at the top of the League Table after the 8th heat of that Race. Appearing at the top of the League Table after the 8th heat of the 'Rockhard' BC Race, will win you, not only the Rockhard and Enormous Trophy, but the coveted Ultimate Boulderdash Bike!

Continues

If you crash out or come 8th in any of the heats, you will be asked if you want to quit or try again. If you try again, you must re-race the track/heat you crashed out or came 8th in. If you do this, you will use up one of your two Continues.

Cliff's Clues

Cool 'n' crazy Cliff Ace, has some prehysterical playing hints to help you out:

- Cut as many corners as you can. Cutting corners will win you the race!
- Knock as many other riders off their bikes as you can - the more you knock off, the more league table points you'll get!
- Avoid losing at all costs!
- If there are shortcuts on the track, use 'em - if you can find 'em, that is...
